Wu May Not Accept.

ated Press.)-Whether Dr. Wu Fingfang, former minister to Washington and present foreign minister in the South China government of Sun Yat Sen, would accept the premiership of the new central government, was considered doubtful today. Li Yuan flung, who has resumed the presidency, from which he was ousted in 1917, has proffered the chief position in the cabinet to Dr. Wu, but the latter's answer had not oeen received today. Dr. Wellington Koo, also an exminister to the United States and new ambassador to England, is slated for foreign minister. It is expected the new cabinet will be composed-almost entirely of English-speaking ministers.

General Feng Yu-Hsianf, the Christian governor of Hunan province, has telegraphed President Li that sentiment is growing in favor of unity. The general added that he is willing to employ his army to overthrow any military government who might refuse to disarm. General Wu Pel-Fu is reported desirious of retiring to private life but is being urged to retain his great military power. It is pointkota. She declares she is going to be the first woman governor in ed out that he could head a movenominated by the Non-Partisan League for governor of South Da-ment to establish a national army the United States and is, therefore, too busy to think of getting representing a united China, to be used only for defense.

Parliament has been summoned to assemble here tomorrow, but not expected to muster a quorum. The effort to make Wu Tingfang prime minister of the Peking on government. Arriving from Tien Tsin, accompanied by Acting Premier Chow
